The Big Game Club's Name That Dive Boat Competition is Over
It's..... Bimini Blue!

ALICE TOWN, BIMINI—OCTOBER 18, 2010— What does Bimini have in common with Alberta, Canada? Karen Bond, winner of the “Name That Boat” contest!

We can't imagine anyone more deserving than one of our northern neighbors looking to trade a couple bitter cold winter days for a balmy two day, two-tank all expenses paid diving excursion at the Big Game Club”, noted Neal Watson in announcing the winning dive boat name “Bimini Blue”.

By a very slim 6 vote margin, Bimini Blue beat out Outlook Explorer, with Dive Guy and Outpost Diver rounding out the competition. “Since it wouldn't have been much of a contest without these great names to consider, we've decided that Penny Shea, Joshua Royal and our very own Outpost President, Mark Ellert, be recognized for their sportsmanship, and to each, they will receive a complimentary two-tank dive on their first outing on Bimini Blue”, added Guy Harvey.

Mr. Ellert's prize is being donated to the local Bimini elementary school, for the school to use as an award for academic excellence.

“We had a tremendous number of entries for this “name-the-boat contest,” said dive legend Neal Watson, who with Guy Harvey recently announced plans to launch the Dive Bimini operation at the Big Game Club. “It was a tight race to the end among the four finalists, with a number of changes in the standings as voting continued.”

Bimini Blue— a name that divers from around the world will immediately recognize and come to symbolize the most famed dive boat in all of the Bahamas— is truly unique to the area, only one of two boats of its type in existence. The glass bottom, double-decker is certified for 100 passengers and will soon be on property.

Earlier this week, Bimini's famed Atlantis Road was voted the top dive experience in the world by AOL users. “So now everyone's a winner. Nothing in Bimini will come close to offering the comfort and safety that Dive Bimini guests will enjoy, never mind the chance that Neal or Guy might be on board diving with you,” said Mark Ellert, President of Guy Harvey Outposts. When you're diving on the world's best dive site, we want our customer to have a world-class experience – that's the Guy Harvey Outpost DNA.”

About Bimini Big Game Club, a Guy Harvey Outpost Resort and Marina

Founded as a dinner club in 1936 in Alice Town, the island's cultural hub, by Nassau entrepreneur and bon-vivant, Neville Stuart, the Big Game Club has over the last 74 years hosted world-class fishermen, major tournaments, international celebrities and tens of thousands guests looking to bask in the unique "Islands in the Stream" mantra made famous by author Ernest Hemingway who fished and lived in Bimini in the mid 1930s.

Today, the Big Game Club's Outpost concept is designed to take the resort beyond that of a "fishing lodge (though admittedly a majority of visitors will be there for the world class fishing) to create an eco-destination attracting both fishing and diving enthusiasts while focusing on adventure travel, sustainable tourism and marine conservation.

The Big Game Club, which is located on the main navigation channel in Bimini Bay, currently features a 51-room resort and a 75-slip marina capable of accommodating boats up to 145 linear feet. By Spring 2011, a full service fuel dock will be operational.

There are Phase II plans that will include a Guy Harvey Theater, guest lecture series and interactive sessions with Dr. Harvey and the Guy Harvey Research Institute at NOVA Southeastern Oceanographic Center and day trips to the Bimini Biological Field Station's world-famous shark lab.
